Great Memories.

Great men are usually said to have great memories, but it does not follow that all who have great memories are great men an idiot in Ohio was a great curiosity many years ago. He knew the whole Bible by beart from beginning to end, and if any verse was road or repeated to him he could tell exactly in what book and chapter it was to be found, and its verse number in the chapter. He was considered a great marvel in this particular, but in every other he was a mental imbedia, and could not be trusted even to feed himsel.—Chicage Herald.

A Southern Luncheon.

You like how our old black auntie cooks aweet potatoes, or 'yams,' as she calls them at home. It is the best way by long olds of preparing them for the table, although perhaps you will think it rather extravagant, as it takes a great deal of hotter.

After the potatoes have been thoroughly boiled take off the skins and cut them lengthwise in quarters, or more pieces if the potatoes are large. Then in a laking pan dissolve a large piece of butter with half a cupful of brown sugar. Lay the potatoes in the pan and cook them for about 15 min uttes, basting them every now and then with the butter and sugar and turning them over several times. Serve them with really good corned beef mines and sweet corn on the cob, and you have a southern lancheon that is fit for a king."—New York

Deals to rough African Stocks Involving

The pace which the South Afan mining speculation on the London Stock Exchange has attained has led to the prediction in ining and financial circles that a big crash is coming upon speculat-ors over there at no distant day.

A promoter put on the London market recently the stock of a new mining bank. No prospectus was issued, nor any statement of the constitution, objects or management of the institution. One or Yale's two preliminary deals were made with syndicates whose members cleared more than $10,000,000 in a day. Then the public came in, running the $5 shares up to $22, making the capitalization of the concern equivalent to about $75,-

My liver failing to wet for a week, I have tried any number of specifics and have also had physicians prescribe for me, but only received temperary relief. During the early part of the past winter I had my attention called to Ripone Tabolies by a small sign on a telegraph polwhich said 'One gives Relief.' I procured a box and was at once attracted by the next form in which they were put up. Before I had taken a bull deger ioses I began to feel the good effect, especially from the pain I would suffer when my liver was trying to act. I have now taken three boxes and have no more trouble.
